Kooyong Precinct, Kooyong, Statement of Significance, October 2023

What is significant?

The Kooyong Precinct, comprising properties on Avenel Road, Elizabeth Street, Glenferrie Road, Mernda Road, Monaro Road, Moralla Road, Norford Grove, Sutton Street, Talbot Crescent and Toorak Road, is significant.

Significant properties include:

- 1 Avenel Road (highly intact and fine example of an Interwar Old English building)
- 31 Avenel Road (highly intact Interwar Streamline Moderne building)
- 404 Glenferrie Road (DesbroweAnnear designed Interwar Arts and Crafts inspired dwelling)
- 422-426 Glenferrie Road ('Denby Dale'; highly intact and fine collection of Interwar Old English buildings with distinct garden settings)
- 1 and 2/434 Glenferrie Road (highly intact and fine example of an Interwar Old English building)
- 4 Mernda Road (highly intact and fine example of an Interwar Old English building)
- 7 Moralla Road (highly intact and fine example of an Interwar Old English building)
- 13 Moralla Road (highly intact and fine example of an Interwar Old English building)
- 1 and 2/3 Talbot Crescent (highly intact and fine example of an Interwar Old English building)
- 35 Talbot Crescent (highly intact and fine example of an Interwar Old English building)
- 37 Talbot Crescent (highly intact and fine example of an Interwar Old English building)
- 39 Talbot Crescent (highly intact and fine example of an Interwar Old English building)
- 1 and 2/53 Talbot Crescent (highly intact and fine example of an Interwar Old English building with Arts and Crafts influences)

- 59 Talbot Crescent (highly intact and fine example of an Interwar Old English building with Arts and Crafts influences)
- 77-79 Talbot Crescent (semi-detached Interwar Streamline Moderne)

The remainder of the precinct is largely characterised by contributory buildings, with a series of noncontributory infill developments. Refer to the gradings map for designations.

Character elements that contribute to the significance of the precinct include:

- The distinctive pattern of subdivision and development created by the discrete groups of Interwar housing amongst some Federation era dwellings;
- The presence of a large group of individually significant dwellings of varying Interwar styles, including Old English, Arts and Crafts deviations of the Old English and Streamline Moderne;
- The relatively high integrity of the contributory buildings when viewed from the street. Dwellings typically survive with their presentation to the street largely unaltered, retaining verandahs, chimneys, face brick (as relevant), window and door openings, brick detailing and timber joinery;
- The regularity and harmony of the single-storey or double-storey, freestanding Federation/Edwardian and Interwar era building stock;
- Buildings characterised by brick, render, tile and timber joinery, as well as hipped and gabled roofs; and
- Consistency in front and side setbacks.

Later alterations and additions to the properties are not significant.

How is it significant?

The Kooyong Precinct is of local historical, representative and aesthetic significance to the City of Stonnington.

Why is it significant?

The Kooyong Precinct is historically significant as representative of the 1902-1925 subdivisions of Kooyong, which resulted in the creation of over seven key streets. The precinct forms a tangible link to the post-subdivision story of Kooyong, particularly in the Federation and Interwar years. (Criterion A)

The Kooyong Precinct contains a good representative collection of Interwar era dwellings of various styles, including Old English, Streamline Moderne and other Interwar buildings with Arts and Crafts influences. There are also some good representative examples of Edwardian era residences. (Criteria D)

The Kooyong Precinct is aesthetically significant as a relatively intact and visually cohesive group of streetscapes in the City of Stonnington for this period of development. The streetscape consists of a large number of fine, well-detailed and cohesive freestanding dwellings from the Federation/Edwardian and Interwar eras. They display cohesion through form, materials, setbacks and heights that creates a harmonious and attractive streetscape. (Criteria E)
